Parkfield Hall

At Parkfield Hall there is a commitment to empower tenants and support their independence.

Tenants are consulted about the service provided and are offered opportunities to get involved in how we run the service.

What is Parkfield Hall?

Parkfield Hall is supported accommodation for care leavers who are ready to move into semi-independent living.

Parkfield Hall comprises of 10 self-contained apartments with full support from on-site key workers.

Parkfield Hall also offers an emergency crash pad for young people facing homelessness.

We offer:

- A gardening club
- Arts and crafts club
- Cooking sessions
- Budgeting
- Health and fitness activities

What do the tenants think?

“Since moving into Parkfield Hall, I have had full support. The staff are friendly and help you with all they can. I am grateful for the opportunity to live here and I have benefited a lot!”

Charlotte

“Since living at Parkfield Hall, I have received a lot of help from staff with my bills, cooking and personal issues. Living here has helped me an awful lot and the staff are amazing. I don’t think I would be in a stable position in my life if I hadn’t moved to Parkfield Hall. It’s the best choice I made, and I would recommend any care leaver or anyone needing support to move here.”

Katie

“I think Parkfield Hall is a nice place to live. It helps and supports people from all types of backgrounds, to teach them what it would be like to have their own place and sustain it. I have enjoyed my stay here and with the help of the staff, in the near future I will be ready to move on.”

How does it work?

All referrals for accommodation are made via the Children's Education and Social Care Department. Referrals are presented at the Providers Panel meeting which is held every three weeks at Hartington Road.

Once a referral has been considered for Parkfield Hall, the applicant and worker will be notified and an interview arranged.
